

Welcome to Traver's Business Optimization University (BOU). The blue play button you just clicked opens your pathway for the entire learning curriculum you will take. The blue play button can take you many different types of learning and learning environments. Take a couple minutes to become familiar with where your Personal Education Plan (PEP) may take you.

Where does the little  take me when I click on it?

1. A live virtual classroom with your peers, engaged in a short (25-30 minute) course led by a live facilitator who will ask you questions and ensure you are learning the new material.

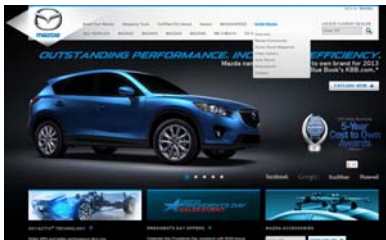

2. A www.youtube.com video that was chosen for you.

3. A video that was developed just for you or your team.

4. A portal to submit homework.

5. A live BD College® classroom with other managers and leadership from around the globe.

6. A website/webpage that has information you need.

7. A PDF or periodical that you need to study.

8. A 3rd party vendor training that your organization wants you to participate in.

9. A link to other accredited curricula partner or partners. There are so many possibilities.

If you can imagine it, the  can take you there. It provides you and your organization with a varied and dynamic way to bring education and information to you.
